Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's message. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others. This can take place with friends, your family, accountability partners, or ministry groups within the church.

1. Describe the opportunities you have in your daily life to share the gospel of God's grace (Ac.20:24) with people who need to hear it.

Who will you share that message with this week?

2. Describe the opportunities you have in your daily life to help Christians better understand and experience God's favor as adopted children of God.

Who will you encourage to better understand and experience God's favor this week?

3. Describe the opportunities you have in your daily life to help people reconcile with each other.

In what situation will you be a "peacemaker" this week?

4. In what ways have you attempted to find favor with God and peace in your relationships by looking to yourself, things, techniques, and other people, instead of looking to your heavenly Father?

In what specific way will you help point someone to God for what they really need?
