Drink Your Milk

A Crash Course in the End of the Book

1. Master Two “Basics” About _____ (v.2b)

A. “Resurrection”

B. “Judgment”

Hebrews 6:1-3 (NIV)

¹ Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God, ² instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³ And God permitting, we will do so.

Application Questions

These questions are provided for your further study and application of today's message. Thoughtfully writing out the answers to these questions will help to drive home the point of today's message. It is also helpful to discuss your answers with others. This can take place with friends, your family, accountability partners, or ministry groups within the church.

1. While most of us don't give it the attention it deserves, the Bible clearly promises a postmortem resurrection of your physical body to the original Manufacturer's specifications. What kind of difference should that make in our thinking and hope regarding the next life?
2. Our accountability to our Creator for the way we lived this life is something we also tend to under appreciate. What difference should it make in our daily life that we will give an account for our Christian life when we meet Christ face-to-face?
3. God also promises to carefully judge each non-Christian. How does this thought change the way you think about your unsaved friends, family, neighbors and coworkers? What will you do about it?
4. Our hope of Christ's return wanes in relation to our ignorance about its reality and details. What will you do this week to dig a little deeper into the truths of Christ's future plans for this world and his people?

Downstairs on the patio near the basketball court you will find the "Focal Point Ministry table" which has Pastor Mike's sermons available on CD. Today's sermon will be recorded and available within 5 to 10 minutes after the service concludes. The list below references other recordings of past sermons which may help you in your follow up study of today's message.
